

JENNIFER INACIO

ASSOCIATE CURATOR AT PÉREZ ART MUSEUM MIAMI

JUROR TALK

FEBRUARY 29, 2024, 12:00

GARY R. LIBBY UNIVERSITY GALLERY

FINE ARTS BUILDING B, 400 SW 13TH ST,
GAINESVILLE, FL 32601

JURIED STUDENT SHOW

Jennifer Inacio is associate curator at Pérez Art Museum Miami where she recently curated Felipe Mujica: The Swaying Motions on the Bank of the River Falls (2021). Selected curated exhibitions at PAMM include MY BODY, MY RULES (2020); Barbara Wagner & Benjamin de Burca: Estás vendo coisas (2019); Pedro Neves Marques: A Mordida (2018); the museum's first Augmented Reality exhibition Felice Grodin: Invasive Species (2017–ongoing); and Sid Grossman: Photography, Politics, and the Ethical Image (2018). As an ambassador of The55Project—an organization with the mission to promote Brazilian visual artists and cultural projects in the United States—she has curated Gustavo Prado: The Undercurrent (2020); Nádia Taquary—Oríki: Bowing to the Head (2019); and What I really want to tell you... (2019). Inacio holds a Masters in Contemporary Art Theory from Goldsmiths, University of London (2014).